[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Rristol, Va., October 31.—Early this morning fire destroyed the plant of the Holstone Extract Company, one of Bristol's largest industries and the property of Charles A Schieren & Co. of New York. The loss is estimated at $100,000, with partial insurance.

The blaze started in the chipper room and apread rapidly throughout the building. The firemen were unable to do anything towards saving the property, and their efforts were devoted to protecting the extensive burk steeds and the large tannery of the same company located nearby. The loss includes machinary and a large quantity of extract. The plant will be rebuilt.
